

At a Cabinet Meeting the morning of June 12th, Governor Jeb Bush and the Cabinet presented a Resolution recognizing the 2003 Davis Productivity Awards Program and declared June 2003 as Davis Productivity Awards Recognition Month.

The 15th annual Davis Productivity Awards Kickoff luncheon held in Tallahassee on June 12th was presided over by the program's new Chair, Lt. Governor Toni Jennings. More than 40 cash awards were presented by Governor Jennings and Florida TaxWatch President Dominic Calabro. Commemorative Plaque and Certificate of Commendation winners among the 800 plus attendees were also recognized.

Five regional award luncheons were held the following two weeks in Jacksonville, Gainesville, Orlando, Tampa and Miami. Nearly 1,000 award winners, dignitaries and guests attended these events honoring exemplary performance documented by 614 nominations that produced $260 million worth of added value for Florida taxpayers.
